MOUNTAIN RESCUE DISCOUNT PROGRAM

If you are a paid part-time, full time, or volunteer for any officially organized Mountain Rescue organization, Bradley Alpinist will extend to you a 15% discount on any personal purchase of items we post on our website. Items offered by our suppliers, but are not found on our website will be handled on a case by case basis

This Mountain Rescue Discount Program is reserved for individual purchase only, and not intended for the organization's procurement or volume purchases for rescue equipment gear fulfillments (this type of purchase is arranged and quoted separately).

To receive this discount, we require some type of documentation from your organization's president, chief, or city/county official. Please call us (970-626-6072) or email us (climberservices@bradleyalpinist.com) to let us know if you are interested in receiving the discount, and to discuss what we need for appropriate verification.

If mailing, please mail the required document to:

Bradley Alpinist
P.O. Box 2986
Corrales, NM 87048

Or, if scanning, email to: climberservices@bradleyalpinist.com .

You only need to do this one time, but each time you require a discount, we will email you a unique discount code to use on the website. Each coupon code is good for one single transaction, but may contain as many items you wish at the same discount rate. This discount is for purchases for your own personal use, whether it is personal gear, or gear for use on your team functions. We reserve the right to revoke the discount privilege from anyone who may abuse the intention of this offer.

The staff at Bradley Alpinist thanks you for your service to our mountain communities!
